BLED AND KRVAVEC SKI SLOPES

Stay at the most beautiful alpine lake, Lake Bled and ski in one of Slovenia's top ski resorts, Krvavec

About Lake Bled:

The Pearl of the Alps, Lake Bled is often referred to as the most beautiful alpine lake. With the castle overlooking it from atop and an island with a church and a wish fulfilling bell in the middle it makes for a fairy tale scenery. In winter when the lake freezes it is even possible to walk to the island. If not the traditional boats called "pletna" can take you there. In other seasons of the year Bled is popular among the golf players for its beautiful course and among sportsmen (it is a famous rowing centre and recently hosted chess Olympics). It also has a ski slope of its own, however one of the best ski slopes in Slovenia is also not far away. And lastly, while you are there, don't forget to taste a local specialty: a vanilla-and-cream pastry called kremna rezina. Bonne appetit!

BOHINJ AND KOBLA SKI SLOPES

About BOHINJ:

Bohinj began opening up for tourists years ago, with natural attractions being the biggest draw.

Bohinj has become a starting point for tourists for day trips, for walks on the trails that run throughout the valley, and for mountaineering and climbing tours. It is also associated with the nearby Bohinj Railway, which includes the Bohinj Tunnel.

In winter the valley becomes a winter sports centre for skiers, snowboarders, ice climbers, as well as ice skaters on Lake Bohinj.

Bohinj with its ski resort Vogel and Koblja is a perfect destination for all snow fans. There are plenty opportunities to ski free ride, enjoy on snow park and have a long run down to valley trough the slope "Žagarjev graben".

Kobla Ski resort

There are 3 double chair lifts and 3 drag lifts on Kobla. The slopes are grassy when not covered with snow and their difference in height is 940 m. You can choose the piste running from the top of the double chair lift Kobla III which is 6000 m long or the piste for beginners.

Ski School on Kobla is a chance to improve your technique with the help of skilful instructors. Ski rental is also possible. Kobla is the only ski resort in Slovenia accessible by train. The train drives in the directions from Koper to Nova Gorica and from Ljubljana to Jesenice.

A snowmaking system is in operation on Kobla since 1993. The artificial snow on the pists enables better quality of the popular Kobla Ski resort.
