

LANTA CHA-DA

“Your home away from home”

The white and clean sand and the spacious beach make it the tourists' favorite.

Once visited by only the Chao Ley people, or sea gypsies, Koh Lanta has managed to retain its state as a near pristine island paradise in Krabi, itself widely regarded as Thailand's most stunning province. Koh Lanta is the tropical island that we perhaps conjured up in our minds when we first read books like Treasure Island or Roinson Crusoe. Visitors to the island find themselves enchanted by Koh Lanta's lush green hills that abound with the sounds of nature, empty, sandy beaches fringed with palms, and all this surrounded by warm, blue, inviting seas.

Koh Lanta's almost untouched state is all the more surprising when you consider how easy it is to get to the island. Just an hour's flight from the smoggy streets of Bangkok finds you in a land of tropical jungle where the striking limestone peaks come to an end only when they reach the golden beaches. And, beyond the sands there is another world awaiting your discovery; and underwater kingdom, boasting some of Thailand's most colourful corals and home to countless varieties of sea life.

Life under the waves

Divers all over the world tend to have their favourite sites to dive but get a group of scuba enthusiasts together and you will find that they all agree that the waters around Koh Lanta offer some of the most stunning underwater scenery to be found anywhere. Those in the know tend to head to the wondrous twin peaks of Hin Daeng and Hin Muay where there are rainbows of colourful coral to see as well as other tropical sea creatures living among the undersea caverns and mysterious wrecks.

If you have never dived before then you are certainly in one of the best places to learn. So it is well worth thinking about taking home the ultimate souvenir from your holiday and undertaking a PADI Dive course at Cha-Da Beach Resort and Spa's very own dive centre. Of course, if you'd prefer to see the wonders of the underwater kingdom without the rigours of a course lasting several days, then the hotel is happy to arrange snorkeling tours where you can become more closely acquainted with the treasures of the deep.

Adventures on land

On land of course, there is no less to see, and the verdant hills of Koh Lanta are home to a massive variety of exotic plants and animals, meaning that the island is the perfect place for a day's hiking or mountain biking. But perhaps the best way to appreciate the beauty of the forest is astride the back of that most majestic of Thai beasts, the mighty elephant.

We have 2 outlets where you take your sundowners on the roof of the beachside bar. Here, you can sip a happy hour cocktail while watching the sun slowly set into the Andaman

Thai style homes, each with private terrace or balcony overlooking the lush garden or partially the beachfront pools.

Eating for pleasure

Thai food, with its rich vibrant flavours and seemingly never-ending array of spices, is fast becoming one of the world's most loved cuisines. And, at Cha-Da Beach Resort and Spa's Palin Thai Restaurant you can sample a range of good Thai home cooking as well as all of your international favourites. Being an island, there is always a plentiful supply of the sea's bounty on hand. Be sure to sample the delights of a southern Thai curry made with local fish and enriched with coconut milk from the surrounding palm trees. But for the ultimate view over the resort and the beach, be sure to take your sundowners on the roof of the beachside bar. Here, you can sip a happy hour cocktail while watching the sun slowly set into the Andaman, turning the skies into a shimmering curtain of gold which, as the evening draws on, will give way to a romantic array of stars
